SELECTION CALL FOR ADMISSION TO THE Ph.D. PROGRAMME IN GLOBAL STUDIES. ECONOMY, SOCIETY AND LAW - XXXVI CYCLE
– ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-2021 –
(Rectoral Decree n. 186/2020 - May 6th 2020)

Art. 1 – Opening of the selection procedure

The University of Urbino Carlo Bo opens a public competitive selection for the Ph.D. programme in Global Studies. Economy, Society and Law, cycle XXXVI, Academic Year 2020-2021.

The table (Annex A) at the end of this selection call specifies the Department in charge of administrative procedures, the duration of the programme, the total number of places available, the number of scholarships available, the methods used for the evaluation of applicants and the exam calendar.

The Ph.D. programme is illustrated at the website <http://www.uniurb.it/global-studies>.

The official call for applications is published at the University of Urbino's official register (www.uniurb.it/alboufficiale) and is also available at the website <http://www.uniurb.it/global-studies>.

Public notice of this call for applications is given, also in English, on the University's website, on the European website Euraxess and on the website of the Italian Ministry of University and Research.

The Ph.D. programme lasts 3 years, will commence on 1st November 2020 and end on 31st October 2023.

The actual activation of the Ph.D. programme is subject to the positive conclusion of the accreditation procedures at the Italian Ministry of University and Research. In case of revocation of the accreditation, the activation of the Ph.D. programme is suspended.

This very call is an official notification valid for all legal purposes.

Applicants failing to comply with the requirements stated in this announcement will be excluded from the selection procedure.

Art. 2 - Admission requirements

Applicants, without any limitations of gender, age and citizenship, must hold one of the following degrees/qualifications by the deadline of this call/announcement:

- a) Italian University Degree awarded prior to the reform (ante D.M. 509/99);
- b) Italian Laurea Specialistica (D.M. 509/99) or Laurea Magistrale (D.M. 270/04) degree;
- c) Other qualification equivalent to the degrees mentioned in the previous letters or higher academic titles issued by tertiary education institutions belonging to the AFAM (High Training in Arts) sector;
- d) Equivalent foreign academic qualification obtained abroad (Master's degree)¹ released by an officially recognized academic institution. The eligibility of the degree will be assessed by the Selection Board for the sole purpose of the admission to the selection procedure. Such degree must be comparable to an Italian Master's degree (Laurea Magistrale) in terms of level and fields of study and must be valid for enrollment in a Ph.D. programme in the country where it has been issued.

The selection procedure is also open to candidates who will achieve the qualification referred to in points a), b), c) and d) by 31st October 2020. In this case, admission to the Programme is "conditional" on the achievement of the qualification: applicants must send a self-certification or the documentation proving the achievement of the qualification to the Ph.D. Office by email (dottorato@uniurb.it) under penalty of forfeiture.

The mandatory documentation to be uploaded regarding the requested academic qualification is as follows:

A. Candidates holding an Italian degree/academic qualification

Qualification already achieved: self-certification, pursuant to article 46 of the Presidential Decree 28.12.2000, n. 445 and subsequent amendments, with an indication of the exams taken, credits and marks obtained. Qualification already achieved

Copy of the academic diploma requested for the admission to the Ph.D. programme accompanied by the list of exams taken with relevant credits and marks and, if available, by the Diploma Supplement² / Transcript of Records³ / Declaration of value or Rectoral Decree of equivalence. The Declaration of Value can be replaced by a certificate issued by an ENIC-NARIC⁴ center containing all the necessary information to evaluate the qualification. The presentation of the official documentation needed to assess the equivalence of the foreign degree to an Italian Master's degree (Laurea magistrale) may not be attached if not available at the time of application, but it is mandatory for enrolment in case of admission to the programme.

Qualification to be achieved by October 30th 2020

- enrolment certificate including the list of exams taken with relative credits and marks
- declaration stating that the acquisition of the academic qualification is expected by 31 October 2020, specifying the institution and the official duration of the course of study.

Certificates (originals or copies) are accepted in Italian, English, French or Spanish; for all other languages it is compulsory to attach a translation in Italian, or in English, signed by the candidate.

All candidates are admitted to the selection procedure, subject to verification of self-certifications in line with art. 43 of DPR n. 445 of 28 December 2000. At any time, with a motivated provision, the administration may order the exclusion of a candidate due to the lack of the mandatory entry requirements.

Those who are already enrolled in another programme cannot take part in this selection procedure.

Art. 3 – Application procedure and deadline

Under penalty of exclusion, the application form to the selection procedure, including the mandatory documentation, must be presented by and no later than June 11th 2020, h 12:00 Italian time, exclusively using the dedicated online procedure PICA available at the following link: <https://pica.cineca.it/uniurb/dottorato36-gs/>

The requested documentation indicated in the Annex A as well as a copy of a valid identity document must be attached to the application form in Pdf-Adobe format (maximum size of each attachment: 30 Mb).

The application form is to all effects of law a self-certification, pursuant to articles 46 and 47 of the Italian Presidential Decree 445/2000 and subsequent amendments, of the data contained therein as well as in the attachments.

In confirmation of the correct submission of the application, the candidate will receive a communication to the email address he/she provided in the application itself, indicating the application identification number needed for any subsequent communications.

Once submitted, the online application will no longer be editable. The candidate can withdraw the application using the dedicated procedure on PICA and submit a new application, which implies filling in again the application form, pay a new competition fee and – if applicable - request new reference letters.

After completing the application form and before submitting it, candidates must pay the non-refundable competition fee of euro 30,00. The payment of the competition fee to the University of Urbino Carlo Bo must be made using the modality provided by the online application procedure

Once the application form has been submitted, and within the same deadline (June 11th 2020, h 12:00 Italian time) the candidate can request two letters of reference, if prescribed in Annex 1, using the dedicated function

² The Diploma Supplement is a document annexed to a higher education diploma for the purposes of increased international "transparency" and of facilitation the academic and professional recognition of qualifications (diplomas, degrees, certificates, etc.) The Diploma Supplement must be issued by the same institution that issued the qualification. Any documentation presented by methods other than the dedicated online procedure will not be accepted. No documents must be sent or delivered to the office.

Candidates are held responsible for the correct conclusion of the application procedure. Complaints related to potential problems due to a system overload close to the deadline will not be taken into consideration.

Applications which are incomplete and/or in the absence of due payment at the stated deadline, as well as applications submitted in any different way other than the online procedure outlined above will not be considered for the selection procedure.

Candidates are therefore strongly invited to complete the application form, to pay the competition fee and to submit the application well in advance of the deadline to avoid running into any technical problems.

For any further information or communication, please contact the -Post Graduate-State Examination Office (dottorato@uniurb.it).

Art. 4 - Selection procedure

The selection procedure consists of an evaluation of the qualifications and documentation provided and an oral exam (interview).

A total of 80 points can be scored for the whole evaluation procedure, allocated as follows.

A maximum of 20 points is awarded to the assessment of the CV, the research project, academic qualifications and other titles and documents as stated in Annex A.

A maximum of 60 points is awarded to the oral interview.

The assessment of qualifications is made by the Selection Board before the oral exam (interview).

For the Ph.D. programme in Global Studies, the admission to the oral exam (interview) is reserved to candidates scoring at least 14 points at the qualification assessment (CV, academic qualifications, research project, letters of reference and other qualifications).

The final score will result from the sum of points awarded to the assessment of qualifications and to the oral interview.

The outcome of the qualification assessment process will be published, prior to the oral interview, on the university website, at the link www.uniurb.it/global-studiesBANDO GLOBALSTUDIES_ITA_ENG.docx

To be considered eligible, a candidate must get no less than 40 points at the oral exam (interview).

The oral exam (interview) will be held according to the procedure described below and on the date indicated in the Annex A.

The date and time of the oral exam indicated in Annex A must be considered an official convocation valid for all legal purposes. No other communication will be sent to individual candidates.

Any change in the date and time of the oral exam will be published on the university website, at the page: www.uniurb.it/global-studiesBANDO GLOBALSTUDIES_ITA_ENG.docx

Failure to attend the oral exam/interview is considered an explicit withdrawal of the application from the selection procedure.

The oral examination also includes an evaluation of English language skills and proficiency.

Admission exams are carried out ensuring an appropriate comparative assessment of the candidates.

Candidates admitted to the interview, will take the oral exam via videoconference.
Candidates will have to ensure the use of a webcam to allow their identification by the Selection Board.
Candidates admitted to the oral exam will receive a communication from the Selection Board with details on the timetable of the interviews and instructions for the videoconference.
Before the beginning of the interview, under penalty of exclusion from the selection procedure, each candidate must be identified by the Selection Committee. The candidate will have to show the same Identity Document of which a copy has been attached to the application form.
The failure to connect, the unavailability of the candidate on the day or time established or the failure to produce the valid identification document as stated in the previous paragraph constitute grounds for exclusion from the selective procedure.

The University of Urbino declines any responsibility for the eventuality that technical reasons prevent the smooth conduct of the oral interview.
Oral exams, also when carried out remotely, are public.

Art. 5 - Selection Committee

The members of the Selection Committee will be appointed in compliance with current regulations and with the provisions of the Ph.D. Regulations of the University of Urbino Carlo Bo.
At the end of the oral exam, the Selection Committee will issue a list of the candidates examined together with the scores obtained. The list, signed by the Chairperson and the Secretary of the Board, will be published in the webpage www.uniurb.it/global-studies
The minutes of the selection procedures will be sent by the Chairperson of the Selection Board to the Rector for final approval.

Art. 6 – Ranking

The Rector, with his own decree, will approve the merit ranking declaring the candidates usefully placed in the merit ranking as winners.
In the event of two or more candidates with the same score in the merit ranking, the assessment of the economic condition prevails for the allocation of places with scholarship while for the assignment of places without scholarship the candidate with lowest age prevails.
The scholarship reserved to a candidate accessing the competition with a foreign academic qualification will be assigned to the first candidate in the merit ranking in possession of the requirements.
The decree with the final merit ranking will be published in the Official Register of the University (www.uniurb.it/alboufficiale) and on the webpage www.uniurb.it/global-studies.
No private communication will be sent: the publication of the merit ranking shall constitute the sole and official means of communication to the interested parties.

Successful candidates are admitted to the Ph.D. programme according to the ranking position and in a number equal to the number of places available.

Art.7 – Enrollment in the Programme

If positions with scholarship become available following an express or tacit renunciation or forfeiture of enrollment at the expiry of the deadline for enrollment of winners with scholarship, other suitable candidates who have sent a manifestation of interest in taking over a position (with scholarship) will take over according to the order of the merit ranking.

If a position without scholarship becomes available following an express or tacit renunciation or forfeiture of enrollment at the expiry of the deadline for enrollment of winners without scholarship, other suitable candidates who have sent a manifestation of interest in taking over a position (without scholarship) will take over according to the order of the merit ranking.

The scholarship reserved to a candidate accessing the competition with a foreign academic qualification (master's degree or equivalent) can eventually be reassigned to the first candidate in the merit ranking in possession of the requirements. In the absence of eligible candidates the scholarship cannot be awarded.

The manifestation of interest in taking over a position with or without scholarship must be sent via email to the Ph.D Office (dottorato@uniurb.it) within the enrollment deadline stated in the Rectoral Decree approving the merit ranking. The facsimile for the manifestation of interest will be sent via email by the office to all suitable candidates in the merit ranking.

Winning candidates must enrol within the deadline indicated in the Rector's Decree reporting the merit ranking, under penalty of forfeiture.

For the enrolment procedure, please check: <https://www.uniurb.it/studiakonnoi/laureati/dottorati-di-ricerca/modalita-di-iscrizione-anni-successivi-al-primo>

The enrollment of successful applicants that have not yet achieved their academic qualification will be made contingent upon actual earning of their degree. Those not earning the necessary qualification will lose their position. The achievement of the qualification must be communicated to the Ph.D-Post Graduate-State Examinations Office within the deadline indicated in the above-mentioned Rector's Decree.

Winning candidates with foreign academic qualifications must deliver a Declaration of Value, together with the degree certificate indicating examinations, credits and marks, translated and legalised by the competent Italian diplomatic authorities in the country of issue. Failure to provide these documents will lead to disqualification from the Ph.D. programme. The Declaration of Value can be replaced by a certificate issued by ENIC-NARIC⁵ centres, containing all of the information necessary to assess the qualification.

Non-EU winners with residency abroad, after enrolling and paying the enrollment fee, must deliver a copy of their residence permit/card or a copy of the proof that they have requested their residence permit to the competent authorities.

Art. 8 - Scholarships

Scholarships are awarded according to the ranking defined in the list drawn up by the Selection Boards, for an amount equal to that determined in accordance with Ministerial Decree 40 dated 25th January 2018.

One of the scholarship is reserved to a candidate accessing the competition with a foreign academic qualification (master's degree or equivalent). In the absence of eligible candidates the scholarship cannot be awarded.

All candidates, without any restriction of origin, nationality or country of issue of the academic qualification, freely compete for the other scholarships and positions.

The scholarship amounts to € 15.343,28 gross / year — subject to National Social Insurance (INPS) in compliance with current regulations. Scholarship taxation for Ph.D. programmes is regulated by article 4 of Law number 476 dated 13th August, 1984.

The scholarship cannot be combined with any other scholarship, except those granted by national or foreign institutions aimed at integrating, with periods abroad, the training and research activities of scholarship holders.

Students who have received a Ph.D. scholarship in the past, even for a limited amount of time, cannot benefit from a new one.

The duration of the scholarship is equal to the official duration of the Ph.D. programme.

The scholarship starts from November 1st and is paid in deferred monthly instalments.

Scholarships are confirmed only in case of admission to the following course year, according to the decision of the Teaching Body.

The amount of the scholarship will be increased by 50% for any period of time spent abroad. Periods abroad may not exceed a total of eighteen months.

Starting from the second year, each doctoral candidate is endowed, within the financial resources allocated in the balance sheet as per current laws, a budget for research in Italy and abroad according to the Ph.D. programme, which will not be lower than 10% of the amount of the scholarship.

Any Public Employee admitted to the Ph.D. programme is placed, upon request and compatibly with his/her administration's needs, on special unpaid leave for study reasons for the duration of the programme, and where the required conditions are met, he/she may benefit from the scholarship. In the event of admission to a Ph.D. programme without a scholarship, or of waiver of the scholarship, the Public Employee on leave, keeps his/her salary, pension and retirement contributions from the public institution with which he/she has an employment relationship in place.

Art. 9 – Enrollment Fees

Ph.D. students must pay an enrollment fee of € 156,00 (inclusive of stamp duty and regional tax).
First-year students must pay the fee when enrolling; fees for subsequent years must be paid by November 30th each year.
In case of delayed payments, a default indemnity of 40,00 Euro will be applied.

Art. 10 – University Benefits (Regional Body for student financial aid)

In accordance with Legislative Decree no. 68 dated 29th March, 2012, Ph.D. students may use the benefits made available by the Regional Body for Student Financial Aid makes available to all students, at the same conditions. Candidates can apply for services (Scholarship, Halls of Residence lodging, University canteen benefits, etc.) by submitting their application form according to the Call for Applications published at: www.ersurb.it - www.erdis.it, where the admission terms and conditions are published.

Art. 11 - Reference regulations

All matters not included in the present call will be governed by regulations and legislation concerning Ph.D. programmes.

Art. 12 - Personal data protection

According to UE Regulation no. 679/2016 (General Data Protection Regulation), Carlo Bo University of Urbino will handle information only for aims connected to the selection and to the stipulation and management of the relationship with the University. The Data Protection Officer is Mr. Mauro Raimondi, tel. 0722-305234 e-mail: rpd@uniurb.it The Data Controller is the University of Urbino Carlo Bo –Via Saffi, 2 61029 Urbino (PU).
